Speaker Biography

Sue Paterson qualified from Cambridge University Vet School 1984, gained her Certificate in Small Animal Dermatology 1990, her British Diploma in Veterinary Dermatology October 1994 and her European Diploma in Veterinary Dermatology in 1996. She is recognised by the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons as a specialist in Veterinary Dermatology and the European College of Veterinary Dermatology as a specialist in Veterinary Dermatology.

She has published extensively, written numerous text books and contributed chapters to a variety of text books including BSAVA Manual of Small Animal Dermatology, Feline Internal Medicine, Equine Medicine and Therapeutics and Advances in Veterinary Dermatology.

She has finished an equine dermatology app for BEVA, and has lectured extensively in the UK, Europe, Asia and the USA. She is one of three Veterinary Directors in a 9 practice veterinary group in St Helens in the UK which includes a referral centre and employs in excess of 120 people.